Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, One of the most significant aspects of human civilization has been fire--a wonderful servant and a terrible master; and,

WHEREAS, Organized firefighting is almost as old as human civilization itself; and,

WHEREAS, Modern-day firefighters must be mentally alert and physically strong because they are called upon to risk their lives to help others; and,

WHEREAS, Louis Bogenhagen has given one half century of his life in voluntary service to the protection and well-being of this community; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Delmont respect and admire the vigilence and tenacity of Louis Bogenhagen's commitment to public safety; and,

WHEREAS, All South Dakotans should be aware of the courage and skill of firefighters like Louis:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 17, 1982, as

LOUIS BOGENHAGEN DAY

In South Dakota, and I respectfully urge all citizens to acknowledge and congratulate Louis Bogenhagen for fifty years as a volunteer fireman for the Delmont Community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of January, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
